SATURDAY, JUNE 26

THE DEMOCRATIC Huddle.

There is by no means a happy state of affairs existing in the democratic party. "There is not only a good deal of 'killing' done among the members of the party, but there is a wide difference of opinion among the leading members of the party as to how revenues shall be raised.

There is also a good deal of incoherence in the position taken by the democratic leaders. The other day while Morrison was trying to get the house of representatives to consider his reduction of the tariff bill, he uttered these significant words: "In these times of opinion among the leading members of the party as to how revenues shall be raised.

POSTMASTER'S SALARIES.

A dispatch from Washington gives the result of the annual adjustment of postmaster salaries for all the states in the Union. From this statement it appears that there are now 2,423 postoffices of the presidential class, for which salaries aggregating $9,684,000 are allowed. The gross receipts were $32,190,225.12, showing an increase of $608,194.58 over the preceding year. In Wisconsin the aggregate of salaries allowed to the seventy-six presidential postmasters is $121,200, at which office the gross receipts for the fiscal year were $78,000,000.

THE DEATH OF JUDGE DAVIS.

The Hon. David Davis died at his home at Bloomington, Illinois, at half-past six o'clock this morning. For some time past he had been troubled with various difficulties of not much importance, but recently a carbuncle and erysipelas combined to make his case alarming, and after a few weeks of intense suffering, he died. Judge Davis was 72 years old, having been born in Maryland in 1813. He began the practice of law when a young man, at Bloomington where he has ever since resided. He was elected to congress in 1845, and two years later was a member of the convention which framed a new constitution for the state. He was elected judge of the 8th judicial circuit of Illinois in 1848, to which office he was twice re-elected. He was a warm friend of President Lincoln, and in 1861, while serving as a circuit judge, the president appointed him to the supreme bench of the United States. He was an able judge and was peculiarly fitted for the high position, but in an evil time the temptation to enter politics overcame him, and in 1877, when the republicans in the Illinois legislature could not agree upon a candidate, Davis was elected to the United States senate by a coalition of the democrats and independents, and he quit the bench to grovel in politics, making the greatest blunder of his life. He was a republican, but being elected by the independent vote, he decided to remain independent in the senate a decision that neutralized all his power. More than half the time he was on the "political fence," and dodged voting on some of the more important questions for fear of appearing to side with one party or the other. Thus his ability and power were never felt in the senate and never made an impression on the people, even of his adopted state. Upon the elevation of Vice President Arthur to the presidency at the death of President Garfield, Judge Davis was elected president of the senate and was ex-officio vice president of the United States until the expiration of his term as senator.

BELOIT COLLEGE.

Dr. A. L. Chapin, who has been president of Beloit college for thirty-five years, will resign this month. It has been his purpose to vacate the office of president when he attained the age of three score years and ten, and that time having arrived he will make good his promise and will transfer the responsibilities to a younger man. Dr. Chapin is one of the oldest college presidents in years of service, in the United States. He accepted the office when he was a young man and when the college was struggling hard for an existence. He has seen it grow until it has become one of the best educational institutions in the west. By far the best part of Dr. Chapin's life has been spent for the benefit of young men working for an education, and his devotion to their service commands the love and reverence of the people.

The president seems to have a grudge against pension bills. He has already vetoed it.

THE YITZ JOHN PORTER BILL.

The Yitz John Porter bill, originating in the house, has been introduced by the senate by a vote of 30 to 17. This puts Porter on the retired list of the army with the full pay of a major general.

GREAT FIRE FROM A SPARK.

Peoria, Ill., June 26.—Friday afternoon a fire broke out in the building, occupied by the Consolidated Tank Line company near the Union depot, caused by a spark from a locomotive dropping into a gasoline tank. There were about 50,000 gallons of oil stored in the building, and as the barrels and tanks exploded the burning oil ran down in the direction of the Union freight depot. A number of freight cars were run alongside the building and the work of loading them with freight commenced. The burning oil ran across the track at the lower end and shut them off, and a moment later the cars were in flames. The workmen had to fly for their lives. At almost the same instant the freight depot was struck, and in a few minutes the building, with all the freight stored in it, thirty freight cars and one passenger car, consumed. From this point the burning oil poured its way toward the river, without doing further damage. The loss of the Consolidated Tank Line company is $15,000 with no insurance; on freight depot $30,000—insured. The heavy loss is on the near side of the river, which is estimated at all the way from $30,000 to $50,000. Probably $50,000 will cover the losses of all parties. Nothing but the absence of wind saved all that end of the city.

RAN INTO A CABOOSE.

Four Men Killed and Two Injured—Five Cars Demolished.

Des Moines, Iowa, June 26.—Thursday night about six miles east of here, an extra train, crashed into the broken section of a freight train, smashing the caboose into splinters. Of the eight railroad laborers who were on board the caboose, four were killed, two injured and two escaped unhurt. The engineer and fireman saved themselves by jumping. Five cars were demolished, three of which were loaded with horses. Four of the horses were killed. The names of the deceased are: Henry Hughes, I. M. Davidson, Doll Aldred and Thomas White. The collision occurred on a high embankment and bridge.

BRIEFERS.

—The "hot wa'le wagon" is again in the city.

—Marshal Hogan took care of one drunk this morning.

—Regular meeting of the common council on Monday evening.

—Why doesn't it rain? The weather clerk has heard that the town is to have water works and so will not need it so much!

—The common council will undoubtedly take some action on Monday evening, regarding the West Milwaukee street pavement.

—Don't forget the great mark-down sale at McCullagh & Galbraith's this evening. The sale will continue every day this week.

—All the members of the executive council of the Associated Charities are requested to attend the meeting Monday afternoon, June 23. Business of importance will come before the council.

—The Rev. Mr. Salmon, of Beloit, will preach at the Congregational church tomorrow morning. Mr. Salmon is a ripe scholar and a polished speaker. All who attend will hear an able discourse.

—"It is which and 'tother' where you will find the most volunteer bosses, along the street railway line or at the dam. There is no look in numbers at either place, all working for nothing and boarding themselves.

—The pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Randall Williams, in the fourth ward, last night was comfortably filled by the good people of the First M. E. church. The occasion was a strawberry and ice cream social, and the time was passed very enjoyably by all those present.

—Street Commissioner Morgan has now finished filling in the washout at the end of Monterey bridge, and has also completed the cutting of Academy street down to grade. The band stand in the court house park is now in thorough repair, and is pronounced thoroughly safe.

We are "slaughtering" millinery goods without regard to cost or value. Any price to make a sale will be the rule. Trimmed hats and bonnets must all go—prices no object—they must be sold for any figure. New York Saving Store great mark down sale to-day and all next week.

—An ox team passed through the city this morning, enroute for the northern part of the state. The team attracted considerable attention, bringing to mind the earlier days in this section when nearly all the teaming was done with oxen. It is a rare occurrence now to see a yoke of cattle in the city.

—Mr. Alfred Dewey, who went to Chicago some weeks ago for treatment, having received a frightful wound in one of his eyes, caused by a nail, has returned home. Mr. Dewey has permanently lost the sight in his left eye, the doctors succeeding in saving the other, although the sight is considerably weakened.

—Edgerton now has two papers. The first number of the "Index," a new weekly published by Jesse G. Patterson, has just been issued and has given a very favorable impression. It is a five column eight page paper, well made up and contains a great deal of readable matter. Independent in politics and devoted to the interests of Edgerton, there seems to be no reason why it should not prove a decided success.

The greatale at the New York Saving Store commenced with a rush this morning. The crowds in attendance all day demonstrated that the inducements offered are fully appreciated. Sale will continue through next week. New attractions every day. 1000 yards figured lawn—on romants—regular 12½¢ quality, at 50¢ per yard. Come soon if you want these, they won't last long at this price. N. Y. S. S.

—There has been some complaint made because the janitor, or whoever had charge of the Myers opera house yesterday, did not have the Bluff street exit unlocked. Considerable inconvenience was caused and had there happened to be a rush or panic, the results might have been serious. It is not probable that any trouble of the nature referred to would occur, but nevertheless all possible precaution should be taken.

—The torn up paving blocks along Milwaukee street are being used in re-paving along the car track and the boards are being taken to the coal yard of Charles Atwood & Co. Business men along the street think that the piles of worn out material have obstructed travel for an unnecessary long time. This morning one of them took matters into his own hands and cleared a space in front of his store by throwing the lumber and blocks back alongside of the track, the workmen having laid a partial barricade half way to the curbstone.

—Prominent among the enterprising business houses of West Milwaukee is the new boot and shoe firm of Clark & Tuckwood. These gentlemen are now prepared to offer the public as complete an assortment of goods in their line as any house in the city, and at prices which will bear investigation. The stock is mostly new and bought during the last week for cash, the remainder of old stock will be sold at special prices. This house makes a specialty of ladies' and gents' fine goods, also children's wear. The new street car line will undoubtedly result in a great saving of shoe leather and will enable city people to wear good shoes. You will find a complete assortment at Clark & Tuckwood's. Read their advertisement in another column and call and make their acquaintance.

—A large number of ladies and gentlemen, including our best home musical talent, assembled at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Sutton Norris, South Franklin street, last evening, the occasion being a reception tendered by Mr. and Mrs. Norris in honor of their distinguished guest, Mrs. Abbie Carrington. The gathering was a most pleasant one, and during the evening the sweet singer favored those present with several of her choice songs. It was a musical treat to be there, and one long to be remembered by all. Mrs. Carrington has made many warm friends in Janesville who will always be ready to welcome her visit again. Refreshments were served, and the reception was only marred by the "braven bell" chiming in their untimely tones which caused a stampede of many of the stern sex. Notwithstanding this fact, the reception was a flattering success, and all feel under obligations to Mr. and Mrs. Norris for the social pleasure of the evening, and the opportunity of making the acquaintance of the prima donna.

FIRE IN THE MANS.

At ten o'clock last evening the chief engineer was notified that there was a little fire in the ruins of the Hollenback house, corner of South Main and South Second streets, the building having been partially destroyed on Tuesday morning. The chief with Marshal Hogan, went to the scene for the purpose of inspecting the ruins. Arriving at the house they found quite a blaze, and before a telephone message could be sent to the fire department some small kids commenced yelling fire, which was quickly carried to the engine house and an alarm was sounded upon the bells. The fire at this time caused quite an illumination in that part of the city, and an immense crowd of people hastened to the fire. The concrete walls of the old building were considered, by the chief engineer and his assistants, to be in a dangerous condition, and they determined to pull them down; the hook and ladder company were so instructed, and went at it. It was amusing, especially to the regulars, to hear the "tree" advice given by outsiders regarding the best way to pull down the walls—the hook and ladder boys took it all at one end and allowed it to escape at the other. Two streams of water were poured upon the ruins, and the fire was soon quenched. This makes the fourth alarm this week.

DIED THIS MORNING.

Judge David Davis Breaches His Last at Bloomington.

Bloomington, Ill., June 19.—(Special.) The death of Judge David Davis, which has been expected for some time, occurred this morning at six o'clock. His condition had been steadily growing worse for several days; in fact his physicians said last night that he could not live more than one day if he did that. He had taken no nourishment for five days and his disease which was a form of dyspepsia combined with a carbuncle had been steadily wasting away his strength. Judge Davis was born in Maryland in 1815, and commenced the practice of law in this city. Since then he has always lived here and it was at his home that his death occurred. He was a man of considerable property and leaves about one million dollars to his young wife.

All Things are Now Ready.

The bright light in the New York Saving Store at a late hour last night, indicated that something unusual was going on and the late caller discovered a force busily engaged in handling and marking goods. In answer to the question where the stock was going to be shipped, the inquisitive caller was informed that the most of the stock would be shipped out in small packages to the various homes of Janesville and vicinity, promising cheap prices and any inducements in selling goods. The fact is, the New York Saving Store commenced a clearing out sale to continue one week; every article in the store has been taken down and marked down, with instructions to come down during the week and clear out. This sale is conducted to reduce stock before the annual July inventory, and goods will be sold for one week at prices never before offered. Come and see.

—Mrs. C. B. Swan, of Fremont, Neb., is in the city. She expects to remain several weeks.

—Mr. George Banway, one of the overseers in the Waupun prison, is in the city to-day calling on his numerous friends.

—The following personal item is floating around in the state press: "Mrs. Ella Wheeler Wilcox, the charming warbler, was born in the town of Johnston, Rock county, this state, in 1850, and is consequently 36 years of age."

A NARROW ESCAPE.

At the fire last night, while the hook and ladder company was at work pulling down the walls, an accident happened which came near resulting in something very serious. Mr. E. M. Haveland, of that company, was on a ladder some fifteen feet from the ground, in the act of fastening the large hook into the roof plate. While at this the heavy timber fell, striking the top side of the ladder it of course struck Mr. Haveland, but it seems he had warned up, at that instant he jumped backwards from the ladder, for enough to strike the ground and avoid being hit by the heavy plate. He struck the ground right side up, and his escape was indeed a marvellous one. He again mounted the ladder and succeeded in fastening his hook into the wall. He was given the "fire department" cheer for his bravery. He is a good one.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

The Canvass for the Nominations on the Republican Ticket.

The time for the assembling of the republican primaries to put in nomination candidates for the various county offices approaches, and already there is a lively canvass going on in all parts of the county for local favorites. The Gazette has taken pains to collect a list of names that have already been mentioned in connection with the nominating convention. This list may be of interest to our readers, and we publish it at this time for the benefit of those interested. In each case we place the name of the present incumbent, (excepting that for sheriff—who is ineligible) first on the list.

CANDIDATES FOR SHERIFF.
R. B. Harper, of Spring Valley.
B. F. Gifford, of Spring Valley.
C. F. North, City of Beloit.
Silas Ward, Town of Janesville.
A. K. Cutler, City of Janesville.
M. M. Conant, City of Janesville.
C. S. Crow, of Center.
G. C. Baceock, of Clinton.

CANDIDATES FOR COUNTY CLERK.
W. F. Williams, of Union.

So far there appears to be no opposition to the re-nomination of Mr. Williams, and probably there will be none.

CANDIDATES FOR REGISTER OF DEEDS.
Charles L. Valentine, city of Janesville.

W. J. McIntyre, of Lima.

CANDIDATES FOR CLERK OF THE COURT.
W. G. Wheeler, of La Prairie.

E. D. McGowan, city of Janesville.
John Menzies, of Harmony.

CANDIDATES FOR COUNTY TREASURER.
Willie Miles, city of Janesville.
Ezra Dillbeck, of Harmony.

CANDIDATES FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY.
B. M. Malone, city of Beloit.

No other name has as yet come to the front, and Mr. Malone will undoubtedly secure a second term without a struggle.

There will be no opposition to the nomination of Captain Edward Raker for county surveyor.

The convention will be compelled to select its own candidate for the office of county coroner, which will no doubt be an easy task.

The above are all the names we have heard mentioned in connection with the offices named. If there be others we will cheerfully give them to the public through the columns of the Gazette.

The indications are that the strife for sheriff will be an exciting one, as all the candidates are very prominent men and have a large following; it being impossible at this time to even guess which will secure the prize.

See these 12½¢ figured lawns which we are selling at 50¢ a yard. They are actually worth 12½¢.

The High School Party.

The annual party given under the auspices of the graduating class of the high school took place last evening at the Myers house. A smaller number of invitations were issued this year than on former occasions, but the attendance was very fair and the members of the class of 1891 upheld the reputation that these parties have gained. The affair included several novel features. The reception proper was held in the parlors and after a short time had been spent very pleasantly, the graduates and their friends entered the diningroom, where refreshments were served. Afterwards the room was cleared and dancing began. The whole affair was a most enjoyable one. Everyone who went was well pleased and the members of the class deserve much credit for their success.

The Circuit Court.

A case in which the Lima Cemetery association is really one party, has been on trial before Judge Bennett to-day. It is the action of A. E. Gould against G. E. Gould, and though brought in trespass, is really to settle the title to a strip of land adjoining the grounds of the cemetery. Mr. Warren is a trustee of the cemetery and the action is brought against him on that account.

The testimony in the case of Wheeler against Wheeler was finished yesterday afternoon. The arguments will be made soon, but the time has not yet been fixed.

SA GOOD SHOWING.

In another column will be found a report of the condition of the Merchants and Mechanics' Saving Bank, which will bear inspection. The business of this popular banking house has steadily increased since moving into their new and commodious quarters, and the institution is recognized to-day as among the permanent and prosperous fixtures of the lower city. Good banking facilities add much to the attractive features of any city, and Janesville has enjoyed this blessing for many years. The Merchant's and Mechanics' bank will continue to contribute to our reputation as a city with a sound financial basis, reaping the benefits that come to a well organized and thoroughly equipped business.

The Weather.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 65 degrees above zero. Clear with north wind. At 1 o'clock p. m. the register was 84 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with northwest wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 72 and 91 degrees above zero.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Signal service predictions: For Michigan and Wisconsin. Generally fair weather, variable winds, and stationary temperature.

The July Wido Awake.

This bright magazine celebrates in various charming ways the arrival of the great American holiday. E. S. Brooks, in his story, "When George the Third was King," gives an inside view of the famous Declaration of Independence, showing that the first Independence Day was celebrated on the eighth instead of the fourth. To use the author's own words: "Instead of one fourth of July, you see, we have really four—the second of July, upon which Mr. Lee's resolution of independence was passed by the congress; the third of July, upon which the Declaration itself was passed; the fourth of July, which witnessed the order for its proclamation; and the second of August, upon which it was actually signed by the members of the congress." Besides this story, there are several others of a patriotic nature, and the usual fund of miscellaneous sketches, confined stories, and poems, making a number that should be read in every family.

CHURCH DIRECTORY.

Giving the Time and Places Where Divine Services Will Be Held on Sunday.

Why standest thou afar off, O Lord? why hidest thou thyself in times of trouble? The wicked in his pride doth persecute the poor; let them be taken in the devices that they have imagined. For the wicked boseth of his heart's desire, and blasphemeth the covenant, whom the Lord abhorreth. The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God; God is not in all his thoughts. His ways are always grievous; his judgments are far above out of his sight; as for all his enemies, he puffeth at them. He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved; for I shall never be in adversity. His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and fraud; under his tongue is mischief and vanity. He sitteth in the lurking places of the villages; in the secret places doth he murder the innocent; his eyes are privily set against the poor. He lieth in wait secretly as a lion in his den; he lieth in wait to catch the poor; when he draweth them into his net, he catcheth, and humbleth himself, that the poor may fall by his strong ones. He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten; he hideth his face; he will never see it. Arise, O Lord; O God, lift up thine hand; forget not the humble. Wherefore doth the wicked condemn God? he hath said in his heart, God will not require it. Thou hast seen it; for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to requite it with thy hand; the poor committeth himself unto thee; thou art the helper of the fatherless. Break thou the arm of the wicked and the evil man; seek out his wickedness till thou find none. The Lord is King for ever and ever; the heathen are perished out of his land. Lord, thou hast heard the desire of his land, thou hast heard the desire of the humble; thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear. To judge the fatherless and the oppressed, that the man of the earth may no more oppress.

THE VOICE OF THE RAIN.

Drip, drip, drip, drip,
Softly on the house-top;
Will the rain never stop?
The solemn sound comes to our ear,
To the rustic strains
Our souls respond. It rains, still rains.

The restless clouds above
From plane to plane in silence move;
All starless is the evening sky—
The clouds, in passing slowly by,
With misty gleam seem to defy
The efforts of the moon on high
To break through gloom
And come to view.

It rains, Oh, sweet the music
That hushes us into softest sleep!
We dream
